FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crawford & Company welcomes Michael R. Moher as new Director Canadian Workers' Compensation Services

TORONTO (July 3, 2019) Crawford & Company (Canada) Inc. announces today the appointment of Michael R. Moher as the new Director Canadian Workers' Compensation Services effective June 24, 2019. Michael will work alongside Director Human Risk Services, Anthony Magagna and will report to Vice President TPA Services, Andrea Aitken. He will be actively involved in client engagement, client stewardship and growth initiatives. Additionally, Michael will serve on Crawford's complex case panel.

"We are excited to have Michael join the Crawford team and we are confident that he will be instrumental in furthering our mission of restoring and enhancing lives, businesses and communities," said Heather Matthews, senior vice president, National Claims Management Centre. "Michael is a well-established professional in the workers' compensation space and I know that he will be an excellent addition to the Crawford team."

With 30 years of industry experience, Michael is a highly accomplished business consultant who specializes in workers' compensation (WC) matters including claims oversight and financial advisory. He has successfully led the national WC practice of several prominent firms and is well established in the industry. He is an effective people manager who promotes a collaborative work environment. Michael is the author and editor-in-chief of the WC business reference manual published by Carswell Thomson Reuters and will continue to work on his WC publication and lead thought leadership in the WC space while at Crawford.
